

WESSEX CARE WELCOMES RAIJELI TO THE TEAM

THE introduction of a more informative communication within the company has seen the recruitment of Welfare and Communication Assistant Raijeli Robanakadavu.

Raijeli has a background of 13 years of senior editorial print journalism experience from the national newspaper The Fiji Times Limited in the Fiji Islands and still corresponds news stories from the United Kingdom to the newspaper to date.

She enjoyed a short work stint with the newspaper Andover Advertiser in August, 2014 and holds a Diploma in Freelance Journalism from the British College of Journalism.

Her role includes welfare and activities role at Holmwood Residential Home and getting the latest news, social informative tips , highlights of events happening in the five care homes and company communication updated to the website page.

A Big Welcome to Raijeli!
